

MEET

@dancesationsacademy.com

SHELBY TAYS

Shelby started dancing at the age of two at Dancestations Dance Academy where she has taken many styles of dance from ballet, tap, jazz, hip-hop and musical theatre.

At the age of five, she joined the competitive dance team with the studio, where she won numerous awards and scholarships for her groups, solos and duet's. Through the years she has grown to love and specialize in hip-hop, tap, and musical theatre.

She has also performed at different events. Most recently performing at the Niagara River Lions, halftime show with the rest of her team and competing with her high school dance team.

Shelby has recently attended and obtained her Performing Arts Educators of Canada (PAEC) teachers training certification.

Shelby has also trained and obtained her certification in CPR and First Aid.

As an assistant and teacher Shelby always enjoys, making learning dance a fun and positive experience. Shelby is very excited to be able to bring her love of tap and hip-hop to the classroom. She hope she can inspire students to reach for the stars.